An Important Matter.

Druggists everywhere report that qualities of the Royal Baking Powder—a new food and medicine—are astonishing; exceeding anything they ever had, while it gives universal satisfaction; headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, sexual debility, backache, pain in joints, fits, dizziness, etc. L. Burton & Co., Troy, N.Y.; Amherst & Murphy, of Battle Creek, Mich.; C. B. Woodworth & Co., of Fort Wayne, Ind., and hundreds or others state that they never handled any product which would possibly give such satisfaction. Trial boxes of this great medicine and book on Nervous Diseases, free at J. W. Gayle's, who guarantees and recommends it.

Mrs. Kittle McDonald has been on the sick list, but is better at this writing.

Mrs. John Harrod, who has been on the sick list for the past three weeks, is improving.

Mr. Hol. Pool is also on the sick list, but is better and able to work some at his trade.

There is talk of a called meeting of the members of Mt. Carmel Church, for the purpose of raising funds for repairs, which are needed very badly. Good people attend.

Miss Dolly [Mobley] has not yet returned from visiting friends and relatives near Carrollton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Combs have been visiting friends and relatives, since the 4th, at Monterey.

Mr. Birdie Harrod spent the 4th in Frankfort with his best girl.

Mrs. Minnie Guley has returned from Gratz, where she has been visiting relatives. Mrs. Woodfield returned home with her to spend a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Rupe are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Pulliam on Tadpole.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hutcherson spent the 4th at Monterey.

Mr. Walter F. Rupe, the painter, has returned from a year's stay in Indianapolis and is now painting at his old painting shop, Mr. Will Long's house. Those needing painting done will be wise to get Walter to do their work.

Master Ranch William is becoming a champion banjo picker.

The glorious 4th will long be remembered by those who attended the Greenwell picnic, at the Greenwell grounds, given by Mr. John Riley. Everything was lovely until about 4 o'clock, when a tremendous firework display took place, severely cut across the forehead with a rock, nearly four inches long. Several others received slight bruises, but not worth mentioning. Their conduct was a disgrace to the county. Whisky the cause.

Failures in Life.

People fail in many ways. In business, in morality, in religion, in happiness, and in health. A weak heart is often an unsuspected cause in failure in life. If the blood does not circulate properly in the heart, there is a chance of breathlessness, asthma, etc.; in the brain, dizziness, headache, etc.; in the stomach, wind, pain, indigestion, faint spells, etc.; in the liver, torpidity, congestion, etc. Pain in the left side of the heart and neck, caused by heart strain. For all these maladies Dr. Miles' New Cure for the heart and lungs is the best remedy. Sold, guaranteed and recommended by J. W. Gayle, Frankfort, Ky. Three times free.

Jett.

Mrs. B. W. Thompson is quite sick. Mr. Vanderventer lost an infant child last week.

The Misses Long, of Frankfort, visited Miss Maggie O'Donnell last week.

Mrs. Riggan, of Louisville, who has been visiting Mrs. B. W. Thompson, left Monday afternoon for the sea shore.

L. A. Trumbo, Esq., will make a business trip to Louisville during this week. It is believed that the freethinker will survive his absence.

Italian peddlers sometimes visit this section and make it a point to insult ladies, who refuse to purchase their dubious wares, when even there are no gentlemen about. There is a small dose of New Orleans physic ready, which will be lavishly administered if opportunity presents itself.

We have just received, from a sister in Japan, what is said to be a good likeness of the Mikado, wife and child. Judging from the picture we have seen, we are inclined to believe he is as zealous in an effort to introduce Western civilization into his kingdom. Both the Mikado and the Prince have very intelligent countenances, while the Empress has a sleepy, dreamy appearance.

The Secret of His Wealth.

A millicoupe said "the secret of my wealth" is in the word, S-A-G-E; and the secret of my health is in the word, S-A-G-E. By this last he meant Dr. Sage, whose Cataarrh has cured him of one of the worst cases of Cataarrh, and thereby saved him from much suffering and unnecessary death, enabling him to make his millions, and enjoy life.

The cures made by this medicine are simply wonderful.

Judge Lindsay's Opinion.

Judge Wm. Lindsay, of this city, was interviewed by a reporter for the Louisville Post recently and gave the following as his opinion of the new Constitution:

"What, in your opinion, are the features which command it?" was asked of the Judge.
"Well, I say, to begin with, that I was opposed to the calling of a Constitutional Convention. I saw in the drift of affairs a conflict between capital and those people who considered their interests inimicable to aggregated wealth, and I feared that one or the other would get hold of the body and would abuse its power in shaping the organic law. The convention, as is well known, was perversely by a strong anti-corporation sentiment, but in looking over it, I was very agreeably surprised to find that it was the spirit made of its power. What was done was in the direction of preventing corporations from abusing their powers."

"Now to the bill of particulars. In the first, is the open question by which the constitution may be amended as experience points out the necessity. This clause is open enough to be practicable and tight enough to give stability to the organic law. You don't want your constitution as susceptible to change as the statutes."
Then he said, "This is the judicial department. The Appellate branch of it is not what I would like to have seen, but it is an improvement on the present system and is easy to amend in case it doesn't work satisfactorily. It would be better to have it in the Circuit Court arrangement with its thirty or more judges, but it seems to be what is generally wanted. My idea of what an Appellate Court system out to be—well, that would take too long to explain, and besides would lead away from the subject of the constitution which we have under consideration."

"Then there are the changes in the Legislative department. While I think the limitations of the system, so far as local matters are concerned, may go too far, it was inevitable, yet the limitations on special legislation are indispensable to making the General Assembly a real legislative body, and if it turns out that the constitution goes too far in these respects, no great harm can come in the next eleven years if we have no more of this character of legislation during that time."

"I think that the general system of taxation proposed by the new instrument is likely to result in a more uniform and equal apportionment of taxation than has ever before been had. And while it may be doubtful whether it wouldn't have been better to have permitted localities to assist in the building of railroads in which they have a special interest, it is better to abolish that power than have it subjected under the existing constitution."

"Well, there is the secret ballot. It is rather against my instincts and judgment, but it has operated well in other States, and it was absolutely necessary to do something in the interest of free elections. I think there can be no doubt that the large majority of the people are in favor of giving it a trial."

"I think that most of the exceptions that have been taken to the new constitution are rather captious than substantial, and the few that are possibly that appear to be really objectionable can be cured through the open clauses as rapidly as their evil results, if any there should be, are developed. And upon the whole I think it is for all of the people to set the question of constitutionality for by the adoption of the proposed document, which, to say the least, is a fairly good instrument and very much better suited to the present condition of affairs than our existing organ of law."

"I see nothing in the proposed constitution that is likely to interfere with legitimate progress or to discourage the investment of capital in Kentucky interest. The truth is, we've been discounting the future during the last four or five years to a degree that is not justified, and with or without constitutional changes we'll have to check speculation until we can realize some of the anticipations we've been going in debt for as though we already had the hand."

Cedar Grove Stock Farm.

Mr. J. T. Mock, of Danville, says, "I can cheerfully recommend Quinn's Ointment to all Horsemen as the very best remedy in use, would not be without it." For Curbs, Splints, Spavins, Windups or any enlargement give it a trial."

Switzer.

Thinking that perhaps a few items would be of interest to some of your readers, also having a desire to once more bring our little village into notice is our only apology for the following:

The public school of this place will begin next Monday, June 1st. Mr. W. H. G. Gayle, our Owen county teacher. Send your children to school regularly, don't send them two days of the week and then anathematize the teacher because, forsooth, he don't learn my boy nothing.

Auction every Saturday night at B. H. McCoy & Co.'s Everybody invited.

Miss Annie Thomason, who has been quite sick the past week, is now convalescent.

Mr. Taylor Carter was badly bitten by a dog, last Friday, supposed to be rabid. When the madstone was applied, however, it failed to adhere and we are very hopeful that all will be well.

Preaching at North Fork Church July 15th, by Rev. E. S. Alderman on a popular subject, for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid Society. Admission 25 cents.

Preaching at North Fork Church and 23 Sundays of each month at 11 o'clock a.m. Services conducted by Rev. J. M. Fowler, pastor.

Educational.

There were sixteen applicants, white, examined last Friday by the County Board of Examiners with the following results: Number of 1st class certificates issued, 2; number of 2d class, 6; failed, 2.

We are now preparing the program for our commencement exercises on the 31st inst., and will have it ready for the next issue of this paper. The public will be cordially welcomed and no doubt delightedly entertained on that occasion.

I regret to hear of the death of our young friend Noel Lee. He was one for whom we had the highest regards.

As a friend he was true as steel; as a teacher honest, faithful and earnest; as a young man an example that all young men could follow and profit by.

We shall miss him at our annual reunion, and as we drop the sympathetic tear with the bereaved ones let us hope that our loss is his eternal gain.

It isn't the usual way

—it's just the reverse—to pay a patient when you can't cure him. Nevertheless, that's what's done by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Cathar Remedy. They promise to pay you $500 if they can't cure your cathar, no matter how bad the case. It isn't much talk—it's business. You can satisfy yourself of it, if you're interested. And you ought to be, if you have cathar. It's faith in their medicine that's behind the offer. It has cured thousands of the worst cases, where everything else failed. You can be cured, too. If you can't, you get the money. They're willing to take the risk—you ought to be glad to get the medicine.

It's the cheapest medicine you can buy, because it's guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned.

You only pay for the good you get. Can you ask more?

That's the peculiar plan all Dr. Pierce's medicines are sold on.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second-class mail matter.

ED. A. LEWIS, Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, JULY 11, 1891.

The Glorious Fourth.

The fourth of July was numerously celebrated in this city on Saturday. A national salute of forty-four guns was fired from the Fort Hill, by order of Adjutant General Hill; there was a street parade made up of floats advertising the business of some of our merchants, but was not near so large as it should have been, followed by a grand picnic at Lake Park, where game of base ball took place in the afternoon. The United Brothers of Friendship, Knights of Friendship, and Union Benevolent Society, colored organizations, paraded the streets in the morning with bands of music and gave picnics—the first two in the vacant lot on Shelby street, fronting the river, and the latter in Brown's woods, on the Owenton pike. Altogether the town was quite lively, but everything passed off nicely and few arrests were made for disorderly conduct.

Still Enlarging.

Mr. John T. Buckley, the enterprising St. Clair street merchant, will, in a few days, make another great improvement in the arrangement of his business. The second story of his building will be fitted up for the purpose of displaying his large stock of cooking and heating stoves, which will be removed from the store-room below, and the latter room will be devoted entirely to the display of his large stock of fine china. In order that his customers may reach the upper floors with ease and comfort, he will put in one of the most improved hydraulic passenger elevators, and the interior of the building will be remodeled and refitted. The fourth story of the building will be used for storage purpose only.

Court Monday.

The crowd in town Monday to attend County Court was rather small and the sales upon the street very few.

Wm. Cromwell, Master Commissioner of the Common Pleas Court, made the following sales of real estate:

The house and lot on Arlington Heights, opposite the Glens Creek pike, known as the Sheehan place, to John Sullivan and Ellen Sheehan for $1,500.

Fifty acres of land lying on Benson, known as the Harrod place, to Wm. Crutcher for $47,500.

One hundred and fifty acres of land near Woodlake, known as the Langan place, to A. G. Jeffers for $42,600 per acre.

Accidentally Shot.

Mr. William Griffin was sitting upon the ice box in front of J. M. Banta's store, on Broadway, Sunday night, handling a pistol, which a friend had just returned to him, when the weapon was discharged, the ball striking a lamp post and struck George Golden, a colored man, who was coming up the street, in the breast, inflicting a slight flesh wound. The report of the pistol so surprised Mr. Griffin that he jumped from the box and the weapon was again discharged, the ball striking the pavement but doing no damage. He was arrested for shooting Golden, but was discharged at the examining trial Monday.

Death of Mrs. Hawkins.

Mrs. Eliza Clay Hawkins, wife of James B. Hawkins, Esq., clerk in the State Treasurer's office, died at the Kenyon Hotel Monday night, at 11:15 o'clock, after a week's illness. The deceased was the oldest daughter of Rev. Green Clay Smith and one of the most popular ladies in the city. She leaves a devoted husband and two bright and interesting little daughters to mourn her loss.

The funeral took place Wednesday morning from the Baptist Church, the services being conducted by Rev. E. S. Alderman, assisted by Prof. J. D. Pickett, and was largely attended.

Lake Park Leased.

Mr. H. S. Staley has leased from Mrs. M. L. Todd the place known as Lake, in Bellepoint, for five years "at once fit it up as a pleasure-resort. He will inclose the base ground, erect a grand stand, put in a dancing pavilion, and put it in suitable shape for all kinds of amusements during the week and for sacred concerts on Sunday.

A New Coal Elevator.

Messrs. J. W. Gaines & Son, having leased the coal yard they are now using for a term of years, are engaged in putting up a large steam elevator to facilitate the unloading of barges at their wharf.

The elevator will have a capacity for yarding twenty or thirty thousand bushels of coal per day.

Concert at Newtown.

Prof. Wayland Graham, with a corps of assistants from this city, will give a concert at Newtown, Scott county, on the evening of the 23d inst., for the benefit of Cherry Spring Presbyterian Church at that place.

Special trains will run from this city and Paris on the occasion.

Second Prize.

In the oratorical contest held at the Chautauqua Assembly in Lexington, on Monday, the first prize went to Mr. T. J. Jackson, representative of Central University, while the second prize was won by Mr. Martin D. Hardin, of this city, son of Attorney General P. W. Hardin, who represented Centre College, Danville.

Cut in Craw.

A difficulty occurred in the pool room of Henry & Dean, on the corner of Clinton and Washington streets, Monday afternoon, between Robert Evans and Sanford Golin, son of Mr. Phil. Golin, in which the latter received severe cuts in the face and neck from a knife in the hands of the former, and Evans was struck upon the head with a stone. Evans was arrested but gave bond for his appearance at the examining trial.

Shooting at Tyrone.

A fight occurred at Tyrone, in Anderson county, on Tuesday afternoon, in which John Hatchet and James Travis exchanged numerous shots, Hatchet receiving two balls in the left side and the wife of Travis was slightly wounded by one of the balls striking her just behind the left ear and glancing off. The trouble arose over a difficulty between the sons of both men, which took place in the morning. A war between the kinmen of the two men is feared.

Heavily Charged.

During the rain storm Tuesday night the air was full of electricity and the electric light wires became so heavily charged that they affected many iron fronts with which they came in contact, the insulation seeming to become as much of a conductor as the wire it covered. The whole of the iron awning frame in front of the LeCompte & Gayle Company's store was affected by the wires running into the store and a rope used in operating the awning, which came in contact with the insulated wire, was set on fire.

Won the Medal.

Mr. B. Todd Crutcher, of the Roundabout job rooms, won the half mile Safety Bicycle race in Lexington on Saturday. There were five entries in the race, but only two started, which did not make it interesting for Todd, and did not give him a chance to show his speed. He played with his opponent a greater portion of the distance and let him keep up along side until nearing the wire, when he ran away from him, winning the race by several lengths. The prize offered was a gold medal, which Todd will wear as a trophy.

The distance was short and the time slow. If the Lexington wheelmen wanted to see what he could do, they should have made the distance a mile and pitted some one against him who would make him let the kinks out of his legs.

Syrup of Figs.

Produced from the laxative and nutritious juice of California figs, combined with the medicinal virtues of plants known to be most beneficial to the human system, acts gently, on the kidneys, liver and bowels, effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds and headaches, and curing habitual constipation.

43-m.

Won in the Ninth.

The Crutcher & Starks Base Ball team went to Harrodsburg on Saturday last, the "glorious fourth," and fittingly celebrated the day by defeating the Harrodsburg club in the first game they have played this season.

The magnificent pitching of both Chinn and Hewitt prevented more than one run being scored by either side up to the last half of the sixth inning, when poor fielding by the Harrodsburg enabled the Frankfort boys to secure a lead of two runs which they only held for a few minutes, as the home club fell onto Hewitt in their half of the next inning, and turned the lead just the other way. It was at this point that Julian commenced to cry, and it so unsevered the C. & S. boys that they were unable to make any either in the seventh or eighth innings. In the ninth Hewitt struck out the side in succession, one of them on three pitched balls. Julian having dried his tears by this time, the Frankfort boys proceeded to win the game back, which they did upon a succession of hits and errors, with only two out when the winning run was scored.

The features of the game were the fine pitching of Chinn and Hewitt, especially the former, the beautiful fielding of the whole C. & S. club, the batting of Wintersmith and the latter's beautiful throw from left field to the plate, cutting off a run.

Following is the score:

TUESDAY'S GAME.

The Lexington Amateurs came down Tuesday afternoon to play a game with the Crutcher & Starks nine, and by putting in five of the men who have been playing all the season in the Lexington professionals, expected to have no trouble in walking away with our boys. As it was raining hard at the time for the game to be called, and continued to do so for some time after, many of the lovers of the game did not go out to the grounds. About half past four, the rain having ceased, the two clubs got together and, with quite a number of local cranks went to Athletic Park, where the game took place. It was a very pretty contest, but had to be called on the eighth inning on account of darkness. The following score tells the tale of how Lexington was downed:
